7. Reports of the Superintendent for Information

- A. Jeanene Byerly – We had our first Quarterly Reward Day. Our students earned based on their grades, attendance, and behavior. Our Pastries with Principals went very well and we had about 10 parents. We had our Pie Wars Fundraiser and raised over $300.00 for our STEM class. We are pleased to Welcome Natahsa Petredean as our new Special Education teacher.

Michelle Clark- We had excellent attendance for our conferences. Parents were provided an option for in person, virtually, or by phone. We have been talking about respect and responsibility. Story fest was fabulous as always and Thank you to Mr. Thompson for letting us come down to the High School auditorium. The end of the first trimester is November 18th, 2022 and report cards will be going home just before our Thanksgiving break.

Misty Evenson- Story Fest went great and we were able to use the High School Auditorium. The Salmon project for our Fifth Graders is underway, they will be water testing, raising the eggs and taking care of their survival. The Salmon will be released in May and the students are very excited as this project gets underway. Consumers Energy came and gave a presentation to the fourth graders. They sent home an Energy Saver kit to all kids. Conferences went well with parents and teachers.
